Slate of Officers Features Powerhouse Experience

The members of the nomination committee are proud and excited to present the following slate of candidates for election as officers and members of the board of directors.

There are six impressive candidates on the slate for the four available slots on the Board of Directors. By their willingness to stand for election, they have marked themselves as winners, regardless of the outcome of the election.

This slate will be announced once more at our luncheon meeting on April 14; the committee will accept additional nominations from the floor. Then we will ask for a motion to close the nominations and the election will be held on Club Day on April 21. You must be present to vote on the 21st; you need not be present to be elected.

When you read the brief bios of the six board candidates, you will see why our club is fortunate to have so many talented and giving leaders.

President: Wade Quinn

President-Elect: Rolf Kramer

Vice President: Kevin Walsh

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

Today's Speaker: Jimmye Laycock

Jimmye Laycock has served as head football coach at the College of William & Mary since 1980. Laycock graduated from William & Mary in 1970 and played quarterback under legendary coaches Marv Levy and Lou Holtz.

Prior to taking over the Tribe head coaching position, Laycock coached at Newport News High School, Clemson University, The Citadel, and the University of Memphis.

Laycock has been the most successful headcoach in the history of William & Mary Tribe football, leading the team to 20 winning seasons and 10 post-season appearances (through the 2009 season), including a trip to the Division I-AA national semifinal versus the James Madison Dukes in 2004. After a win against the Southern Illinois Salukis in the FCS national quarterfinals on Dec. 5, 2009, Laycock recorded his 200th win as the Tribe's head coach—the 13th coach in FCS history to reach that mark.

On June 21, 2008, William & Mary officially opened its state-of-the-art football facility which was named after him. It is called the Jimmye Laycock Football Center and it sits adjacent to Zable Stadium.

Laycock is from Hamilton in Loudoun County. He attended Loudoun Valley High School and lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He earned 12 varsity letters and had his football jersey number retired.

He is married to Deidre Connelly, a sports psychology consultant at William & Mary. He has four children.

Charity Ball Is Just Around the Corner: Need Auction Items

As we get closer to Kiwanis Charity Ball, we could still use more silent auction items. Please contact Donna Magoon with your donation. Tickets can be purchased by check and mailed to the following address: Kiwanis Club of Williamsburg, PO Box 1367, Williamsburg 23187.

There's still time to step up and be a corporate sponsor. With a corporate sponsorship you get a table for 10 and an ad in our program and in announcements during the evening. See Laura Colvin if you wish to help out.

Many thanks to Carla Morin for coming in and giving our fundraiser the help it needs to be a success. Bill Wren is going on a missionary trip to Haiti from April 17-24, and Carla's willingness to come in and take charge in his absence is what being a true Kiwanian is all about.

Recently inducted member Jolene Burke is already volunteering in a big way by working with Bill Wren and the Committee to help put together the program for this special event. Jolene asks: Where else can you promote your self/your business to hundreds of people for an affordable $25, with your advertising dollars going to a worthy cause? You can place a $25 business-card sized ad in the Charity Ball program with all proceeds going directly to our club.

Make checks payable to Kiwanis Club of Williamsburg for $25, then deliver your business card either by hard copy or electronically to Jolene. If you want to mail the check and card, send to: 103 New Market Ct., Williamsburg, 23188. Or you can hand-deliver them to her at one of the Wednesday lunch meetings. To e-mail your electronic business card as a JPEG or PDF file, send to: homes@joleneburke.com.

Hurry ... Jolene must receive ads by this Friday, April 16!

Finally, there is yet another way to contribute: Become a wine sponsor! Club members tell us that wines from Chile and Argentina are very good, so we are going with their recommendations. We'll be purchasing wine from Chile's Santa Ema collection, and Argentina's Che Gaucho collection.

Join Tom French, Wade Quinn and Rolf Kramer who have become sponsors by donating $125 each to help cover the costs of the wine.

You will be included in a one-third page ad with your or your company's name in the program.

Let us know by Thursday morning, as the Charity Ball Program will go to Suters for printing.

Interclub With York on April 22

There will be an Interclub dinner meeting with the York Club on Thursday, April 22, at 6:30 p.m. at Bill's Seafood House, 2831 Denbigh Blvd., Yorktown, at the intersection of US Rte. 17 and Denbigh Blvd.

We will meet at the Williamsburg Crossing shopping center, Rte. 199 and John Tyler Highway, in the main lot near Taco Bell at 5:45 p.m. to car pool. Please e-mail gbestes@cox.net or see him at the April 14 meeting if you plan to attend.
