We Donated $28,360 To 30 Organizations in 2010

(The following message is from 2010 Grants Committee Chair Martha Madeira.)

The good news is, our club has awarded $28,360 in grants to 30 organizations for 2010. The bad news is, we had $74,934 in requests; we were unable to provide funds to all who asked. We have mailed checks to the following recipients of Kiwanis grant awards:

Alzheimers Association, Arc of Greater Williamsburg, Avalon, Bacon Street, Boy Scouts of America, Child Development Resources, Children's Gaucher Research Fund, Colonial Casa, Greenwood Christian Academy, Grove Christian Outreach Center, Habitat for Humanity, Hospice House and Support Care, Jamestown 4H Educational Center, JCC Fire Department, JCC Police Department, Matthew Whaley Elementary Dance Program, Olde Towne Medical Center, PASHN, Inc., Peninsula Agency on Aging, Rita Welsh Adult Literacy, Sentara Williamsburg Medical Center Auxiliary, Stage Lights, This Century Art Gallery, VCE Family Focus, Virginia Arts Festival, Virginia Legacy Soccer, Virginia Symphony Society, WHRO, Williamsburg Area Faith in Action, Williamsburg Area Meals on Wheels, Williamsburg Regional Library, Williamsburg Volunteer Fire Department and Williamsburg James City County Community Action Agency Head Start Program.

We mailed letters to those organizations that we were unable to fund. The needs in our community are so great and the amount of funds available to support those needs have been reduced significantly.

Many thanks to the following committees and their chairpersons who invested a lot of time and serious consideration to make the difficult decisions on which organizations to fund and the amount of each grant award:

Community Services, Jim Geiger; Young Children Priority One and Youth Services, Harrison Bresee and Laura Colvin. Also thanks to Rolf Kramer who was in charge of the overall grant process this year as one of his many duties as our club's vice president.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

Six Kiwanians Become New Members of President's Club

During the Foundation's annual meeting Nov. 3, the following six Kiwanians were recognized as having contributed in excess of $1,000 and became new members of the Presidents Club: Faith Amoroso, Jim Hinish, Lois Hornsby, Martha Madeira, Bob Skelly and Kevin Walsh.

Colonial Club Could Need Help If Tribe Football Makes Playoffs

The Colonial Capital Club may need our help over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend. They do all the ushering for the William & Mary football and basketball games. They have one more football game to do on Nov. 20, which they have covered. But if the Tribe gets into the playoffs again, which is a high possibility again this year, it could pose a problem.

If there is a playoff game at Zable Stadium, it will occur on Saturday, Nov. 27, the Saturday after Thanksgiving. We'll know if one is necessary by Nov. 21. If this happens, it will overlap with the basketball season, which begins with a three-day tournament starting on Nov. 26.

If the playoff football game occurs on Nov. 27, they will need help! They need some volunteers that could help at the last minute. Al Albright is the ushering coordinator and his contact information is 220-4019, or e-mail at aalbright@widomaker.com.

Keep Chico's Date of Dec. 6 In Mind

Between 4:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 6, Chico's will hold a Wardrobe Party to benefit the Williamsburg Kiwanis Foundation (WKF).

Enjoy refreshments and fun while shopping for the holidays, knowing that 10 percent of all sales during this time period will go to our non-profit Foundation. The WKF has partnered with the Kiwanis Club of Williamsburg in providing needed financial support to many community agencies such as Headstart, Bacon Street and Casa. More than ever, our efforts at fundraising are crucial to maintaining the wonderful quality of life we all enjoy as citizens of this wonderful town.

The store is located on Main Street in New Town, opposite Barnes and Noble.

In addition, Jim Kaplan and John and Audrey Chiricotti became new members of the Presidents Club.

Ray Adams and John Edgerton were recognized as contributing in excess of $2,500 and became the first members of the Presidents Club – Silver. Gary Ripple was thanked for his contributions in excess of $5,000 and became the Charter Member of the Presidents Club – Gold.

The names of five Kiwanians or relatives were added to the Foundation Memorial Plaque and recognized for their support and contributions to the Club. We were pleased that relatives of Jack Brendel, Al Lauer, Lois McClellan, Norb Murtaugh and Evelyn Wigley were able to be with us.

Welcome New Members

Pete Goldman

Goldman

Pete grew up in Richmond where he attended Benedictine High School. He graduated from the University of Louisiana—Monroe, then found his way back to Virginia to begin a professional career in the financial field. He spent 5½ years with Wachovia Securities, then worked for a regional firm for two years. During this time, he met his fiancée Madeline, and decided to move to Williamsburg to be closer to her. It was in Williamsburg that he found his current position with Wells Fargo Advisors, where he is a registered financial advisor.

Pete enjoys spending time with Madeline and her two daughters. He is an avid tennis player and loves watching football, especially the Miami Dolphins and the LSU Tigers.

Valerie King

King

Valerie is a regional private banker with Wachovia/Wells Fargo Bank and has been in the banking business for 25 years. She holds a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Washington, an associate's degree in computers and a banking degree from the American Institute of Banking. She also holds several investment licenses, including Series 6, 63, 65 and Series 7.

She has lived all over the U.S., and lived in Europe for three years. Hampton Roads has been her home since 1984, and she has lived in Williamsburg for the last four years. She is married with two grown sons and six grandchildren.

Feel The Passion – Join Us At The Opera

(The following message is from Carol Negus.)

This is an invitation to the membership to determine who would like to do an VA Opera outing to see “Cosi Fan Tutte.” There appeared to be widespread interest after Glenn Winters and Sarah Kate Walston appeared at our last meeting.

The dates for a Sunday matinee are Nov. 21 for Norfolk and Nov. 28 for the Richmond performance. Curtain is 2:30 p.m. both days. “Madama Butterfly” is coming in March, 2011.

Historically, we go to the matinee followed by dinner. The Richmond venue at the newly renovated Carpenter Center was popular last year and the restaurant excellent.

Please email me of your interest and which the locations you prefer, or if either would work for you. The majority rules. Due to the first date coming up this Sunday, I would appreciate your immediate response.

We have always had a wonderful opera experience! Being with our fantastic group makes it even more so.
