Today's Program:

Eric Bornstein, President and Executive Director of the Virginia Symphony!

Eric Borenstein is the President and Executive Director of the Virginia Symphony. Since taking this position in May, 2010, he has overseen two seasons with balanced budgets and has worked diligently to strengthen the VSO's service and connection to the numerous communities the orchestra serves. This effort has resulted in new partnerships and expanded concert offerings, including moving the Williamsburg concert series to the campus of the College of William & Mary, resulting in a sponsorship by Colonial Williamsburg. In Virginia Beach, partnerships with local businesses resulted in the formation of a summer series at the Oceanfront.

Eric holds a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Arts Management from the State University of New York. He began his studies as a music major in Voice and Composition. His career has included posts with Jimi Hendrix' Electric Lady Recording Studio and with Clive Davis at Arista Records as well as a decade-long position with Barry Manilow in New York and Los Angeles.

He discovered orchestra management at the Buffalo Philharmonic where he worked as Marketing Director and then Director of Regional Development. It was there that he met JoAnn Falletta in 1999.

Following his time in Buffalo, he was the Executive Director of both the Cape Cod Symphony and the Erie Philharmonic.

Eric is an accomplished musician and songwriter. He is married to Carole Ann Fabian, and they have a grown daughter, Corey.

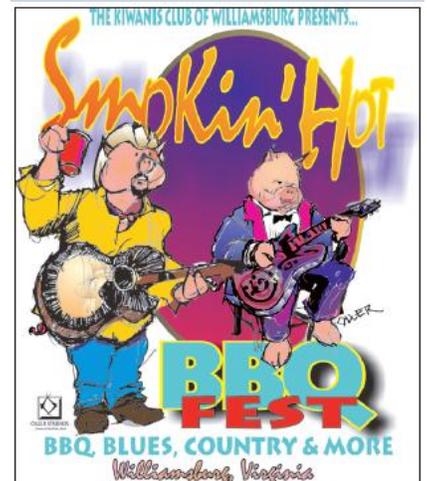

The April/May issue of the Capital District's magazine, the Capital Kiwanian, is now available online.
