Teenager of the Year Award

Each year the Capital District Foundation, in conjunction with clubs from the Capital District, recognizes deserving teenagers for their academic achievements, citizenship, service to their school and community, growth and responsibility in his/her family unit, character and leadership performance. Each participating club nominates one teenager from their service area. If nominee continues through competition process on club, division and district levels, and the finalist will win $2,000 cash and trip with their parents/guardians to the Kiwanis District Convention, August 17, 2013 at the Williamsburg Hotel and Conference Center.

ELIMINATE

maternal/neonatal tetanus

Ann Updegraff Spleth, Chief Operating Officer of the Kiwanis International Foundation will provide us with an update on the Kiwanis Family's global effort to Eliminate Maternal and Neonatal Tetanus.
